CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH &

DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD JJ.

DATED: 15TH SEPTEMBER,2006

P.C.:

. It is common ground that the order dated 10th October, 2001 of which clarification is sought by this Civil Application was passed in Writ Petition No.2980 of 2001, which was subsequently converted into Public Interest Litigation No.17 of 2002. It is also common ground that the order dated 10th October, 2001 is an interim order or an ad-interim order.

2. It is clear from the order dated 22-6-2005 that Public Interest Litigation No.17 of 2002 has been finally disposed off by that order. As the petition itself has been finally disposed of by order dated 22-6-2005, obviously interim or ad-interim orders that were made to operate during the pendency of that petition will not survive. Hence, no clarification is necessary. Civil Application disposed of.
